JENNY
JOHNSON JORDAN

Head Coach
Second Season
35-7 (.833)
UCLA '96

Former Bruin standout and Olympian Jenny Johnson Jordan returned to Westwood and is in her 12th season with the UCLA beach volleyball program in 2025 and the second as the head coach. UCLA Athletics announced on June 5, 2023, that Johnson Jordan would be named just the second head coach in the program's history, replacing Stein Metzger. She also spent seven years as an assistant coach before being elevated to associate head coach for the Bruins on July 13, 2020.

Johnson Jordan guided the Bruins to the NCAA Championship finals in her first year, ending the 2024 campaign with a 35-7 record and a second-place finish at the Pac-12 Championship as well.

She was inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame on Oct. 5, 2018, and has won a national title as a player and as a coach as she helped guide the Bruins to their first-ever NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship in 2018 as UCLA went 40-4 on the year.

Johnson Jordan then helped the Bruins win back-to-back NCAA titles on May 5, 2019 (35-3) and was named the AVCA National Assistant Beach Coach of the Year on May 9, 2019.

Johnson Jordan played with the Bruins from 1991 to 1995 and was a two-time team captain for the Bruin women's volleyball team (1994-1995). She was a member of the 1991 UCLA National Championship squad, as well as the NCAA runner-up teams from '92 and '94, earning All-Tournament Team honors in 1994.

Jenny Johnson Jordan coaching Sarah Sponcil (4) and Lily Justine in the 2018 NCAA Championship.

She played in 127 matches and 406 sets in her four seasons, recording 1,212 kills and 1,214 digs, ranking as one of 12 Bruins to post at least 1,000 career kills and digs. Johnson Jordan, who sits eighth in school history in digs and 21st in kills, also had 93 service aces and 225 blocks. She led the Bruins in aces in 1993 and 1995, as well as digs in 1995.

Johnson Jordan earned a pair of Volleyball Magazine All-American Honorable Mention accolades in 1994 and '95. She was also a two-time All-Pac-10 Conference First Team honoree ('93 and '95) and a two-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection.

Following her playing days at UCLA, Johnson Jordan played on the beach, competing in the sport's grandest stage. In 2000, with partner and former Bruin Annett (Buckner) Davis, she finished fifth in the Sydney Olympic Games. She also served as an alternate for the 2004 Athens Games, and during that year with Davis, became just the second team in the world to compete in 100 events together.

Elsewhere on the beach, Johnson Jordan has played on the Pro 4's, FIVB, WPVA, BVA and AVP Tours. In 1997, she won the FIVB 4-Person World Beach Championship at UCLA. Two years later, she won a Silver medal at the FIVB World Championships. A winner of 10 professional beach titles worldwide, Johnson Jordan ranked in the Top 10 in points every year she competed on the BVA and AVP Tours and was honored in 2002 with the AVP Special Achievement Award.

Johnson Jordan has been a High Performance Coach for USA Volleyball and is also USAV Beach Cap Certified. In 2012, she became the first beach volleyball coach at her alma mater, Windward High School, and that year was also the head coach for the LAVA girls club volleyball beach program.

Johnson Jordan, who graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's in communications in 1996, comes from a rich tradition of Bruins and athletic pedigree. Her father, Rafer, was an Olympic Gold medalist in the Decathlon in 1960 and a Silver medalist in that event in 1956. Her mother, Betsy, also attended UCLA, as did her brother Josh, a former javelin thrower, and uncle Jimmy, a former football player who went on to a career with the San Francisco 49ers and is a member of the NFL Hall of Fame.

Johnson Jordan is married to former UCLA All-American wide receiver Kevin Jordan (class of '95). The couple have two children, Jaylen and Kory.

KELLY REEVES

Assistant Coach
Second Season
UCLA '15

UCLA beach volleyball standout Kelly Reeves returned to her alma mater last year and is in her second season in 2025 as an assistant coach with the UCLA Beach Volleyball team. Head Coach Jenny Johnson Jordan completed her coaching staff on July 5, 2023, with the hiring of Reeves before the 2024 season.

"This is a full circle moment having Kelly join the UCLA Beach Volleyball program as an assistant coach," said Johnson Jordan. "As a student-athlete at UCLA and a current professional beach volleyball player, Kelly has always been a fierce competitor and student of the game and I am excited for the great impact I know she will have with this program."

In addition to her playing career, Reeves has developed a coaching career in all levels of the sport, including juniors, collegiate, USAV development, and amateurs. In 2022, Reeves helped the LMU Lions finish 4th at the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship, the best finish in the program's history. That same year, Reeves was a recipient of the Thirty Under 30 Beach coaches award from the AVCA.

Her coaching career began with a two-year stint with WAVE Volleyball (2015-17) as an assistant coach. From there, Reeves joined the University of San Diego as a volunteer assistant coach for the Torero's Indoor Volleyball Team (2016). Following this, she served as a private indoor coach for the VIBE Volleyball Lab from 2017-20 in Los Angeles. Reeves also spent two months as a Military Sports Coach for Pro Sports MVP based in Colorado Springs, Colo., in 2021 and served as an assistant coach for three months in 2022 with the USA Beach National Training Development Program. She has also spent the last six years as the head coach at Elite Beach in Los Angeles.

Raised in San Diego, Calif., Reeves comes from a UCLA Volleyball family where her mother, Jeanne (inducted into UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000), competed and coached for the program, along with her two brothers, Connor and Jake. During her time at UCLA, Kelly helped the UCLA Indoor Team to a National Championship in 2011 and competed in the inaugural season with the UCLA Beach Program in 2013. Kelly was named the program's first All-American in 2013.

Prior to her beach debut, Kelly played one year of professional indoor volleyball in Switzerland and trained with the USA Indoor National Team from 2014-15. She then made her debut on the AVP in 2016, finishing 5th in her first Main Draw. She was later named Rookie of the Year in 2016 and has since competed in all AVP events. Kelly's highest finish on the AVP tour is 3rd place, most memorably in the 2019 Manhattan Beach Open. She has also competed on the NORCECA Tour and FIVB World Tour, with her highest FIVB finish of 2nd place in Cambodia.

Along with coaching and playing, she also enjoys co-hosting the Bet on Her Podcast (founded by Dana Drambarean) with fellow AVP athlete Geena Urango, to bring a women's sports and lifestyle focused podcast to the public with a focus on telling the stories of women across every sports discipline while pulling the layers back of how the journey for women to gain traction and success in pro sports looks from the inside out.

JOSE LOIOLA

Assistant Coach
Second Season
CSU Dominguez Hills, '23

New UCLA Beach Volleyball head coach Jenny Johnson Jordan announced (June 26, 2023) the return of beach volleyball Hall of Famer and current USA Beach Volleyball National Team head coach Jose Loiola as an assistant coach. Loiola was a volunteer assistant coach for the Bruins in 2021, helping guide UCLA to a Pac-12 Championship and an NCAA runner-up finish. He will be in his second season as an assistant coach in 2025.

"I am very excited to welcome Jose back to our coaching staff," said Johnson Jordan. "Jose brings a wealth of knowledge and passion for the game from his legacy as a player, and more recently his expertise as a coach with the Beach National Team and in the pro ranks. Our team is looking forward to Jose joining us again."

After Loiola's previous season with the Bruins, he went on to coach 2020 Olympian Tri Bourne and also served as head coach of the USA Volleyball squad that won gold at the 2021 U19 World Championships. In 2022, he coached Miles Partain and Andy Benesh to gold at the FIVB Challenger Dubai.

Loiola began his professional coaching career in 2014, coaching Casey Jennings and UCLA alum Jeremy Casebeer. He mentored three different teams in 2015, highlighted by the duo of Theo Brunner and Nick Lucena, who placed fourth at the FIVB World Championship. Also in 2015, he coached the tandem of Irene (Hester) Pollock and Caitlin Ledoux. Pollock would later help guide the Bruins to their second-straight NCAA Championship in 2019 as the volunteer assistant coach. Loiola coached Sara Hughes and Kelley Claes in 2017 to an AVP victory in Chicago. He also coached Hughes and Summer Ross in 2018-19, as the pair would claim two tour stop victories in the AVP and won gold in Russia on the FIVB circuit.

He got his start in coaching in 2011 as the head coach of Team Wave (indoor volleyball club). He has also served stints as an assistant coach at West Torrance High School in 2012 and that same year was an assistant coach for the Men's U19 World Championship in Cypress. Also in 2012, he served as the head coach for the U17 Women's Junior National Team. He was a head coach for the U21 Men's and Women's World Championships in Croatia in 2013. In 2014, he guided the U21 Women to a bronze medal at the World Championship and served as the head coach for the U21 Junior National Team in 2015. He also served as the head coach of the U21 Travel Team that went to China. He spent four years (2015-18) as a head coach for the USA Volleyball Beach Tryouts (High Performance), which is now the National Team Development Program.

Loiola recorded 55 victories over his long and legendary career. He won titles for eight straight years, from 1995 through 2002, including 13 AVP titles in 1997 and seven FIVB titles in 1999. Loiola has experienced success both on the AVP Tour as well as internationally, winning 35 domestic events plus 20 on the FIVB Tour. Among his many wins were the 1997 King of the Beach, 1999 FIVB World Championship (Marseille, France), 2001 Goodwill Games (Australia) and twice winning the Manhattan Beach Open (1995 and 2000). He was an Olympian for Brazil in 2000 (Sydney), finishing ninth with Emanuel Rego.

He won four AVP Offensive Player of the Year awards (1995-98). Loiola was the first player to be selected AVP Rookie of the Year (1993) and then MVP (1997). His first title, an indoor tournament in 1995, marked the first time an AVP event was won by foreign-born players, as he claimed the title with Eduardo Bacil. In 2001, the FIVB chose Loiola and Rego as one of the two best beach volleyball teams of the '90s.

Loiola, a junior national champion in Brazil, was inducted into the CBVA Beach Volleyball Hall of Fame in 2014 and the International Volleyball Hall of Fame in 2017.

Jose Loiola was inducted into the International Volleyball Hall of Fame in 2017.

This is the second stint for Jose Loiola with the Bruins' Beach Volleyball team (volunteer in 2021).

Fall 2024
UCLA Beach Volleyball freshman Sally Perez and junior Maggie Boyd took down the field of 64 to capture the Bruins' first-ever AVCA National Collegiate Beach Pairs Championship on Nov. 17, 2024. Boyd and Perez were seeded fifth in pool play and posted two wins on Friday, Nov. 15, defeating Maya McNabney and Madeline Sigmon of Costal Carolina (60th seed), 21-14, 21-15 in the first match and then taking down Kristin Bobay and Millie Olsson of Texas A&M - Corpus Christi (37th seed), 21-14, 21-17, to win the pool with a 2-0 record. The duo was then reseeded at No. 7 in the Champions Bracket and opened play on Saturday, Nov. 16 with a 21-18, 21-19 straight-set win over USC's Maya Gessner and Kaileigh Truslow (26th seed). The Bruin pair then defeated Maddison Parmelly and Karin Zolnercikova of Texas (10th seed) in their second match on Saturday, 21-17, 21-16. The third match of the day saw the Bruins win a quarterfinal bout against Long Beach State's second-seeded pair of Malia Gementera and Taylor Hagenah in their only three-setter of the tournament, 21-18, 17-21, 15-12. That set up a semifinal match on Sunday morning at 6:00 a.m. PT where the UCLA tandem took out 11th-seeded Cal Poly's Piper Ferch and Erin Inskeep in identical set scores of 21-16. Ferch and Inskeep defeated the three-seed from LMU to reach the semifinals. All the Bruins had to do in the title match was take down the 10th-ranked pair in the world, TCU's top-seeded tandem of Daniela Alvarez and Tania Moreno. The duo from Spain finished fifth at the 2024 Olympic Games and has a combined collegiate career record of 88-14. The Horned Frogs pair hadn't dropped a set in the tournament and Boyd and Perez used timely blocking and aggressive serving to post a straight-set victory in the finals, 21-16, 21-17. Playing in her first season for the Bruins, Perez registered three blocks in the finals and was huge at the net. Boyd finished the match with four huge aces and put a lot of service pressure on the Horned Frogs.

2024

UCLA Career Highlights
• UCLA Athletic Director's Honor Roll (Fall 2024)

Fall 2024
UCLA Beach Volleyball freshman Alexa Fernandez and senior Reagan Hope reached the finals of the 17th bracket before officials decided not to play it out to completion. The duo had an impressive 5-1 record with a lot of hard-fought victories that went the distance. Fernandez and Hope, originally seeded 10th, won their pool with a 2-0 record. They opened with a three-set thriller over FIU's (55th seed) Aleksandra Chudzik and Arianna Franklin, 17-21, 21-15, 15-9 on Friday and closed the day with another three-setter, this time defeating Florida Atlantic's (23rd seed) Julie Honzovicova and Kate McLaughlin, rallying for a 14-21, 21-19, 21-19 win. They were reseeded 16th in the Champions Bracket and fell to the 17th-seeded duo from Stanford, Avery Jackson and Taylor Wilson, 21-14, 21-19. That relegated them to the 17th Bracket, where their grit and toughness was put on display again winning three more matches, all in three sets, to reach the finals of the 17th Bracket. Seeded first in the 17th Bracket, the Bruin duo opened with a 21-18, 32-34, 15-11 win on Saturday over GCU's (16th seed) Becca Drake and Jessica Drake. Then on Sunday, they took down the eighth seed from LSU, Gabi Bailey and Parker Bracken, 16-21, 21-14, 15-13, and the fourth-seeded pair from Florida State, Gella Andrew and Myriah Massey, 21-15, 15-21, 15-12. They were expected to take on the 15 seed, Texas A&M - Corpus Christi's Madison Morrow and Tess Spaansen. The Islanders' duo posted upsets of No. 2 Washington, No. 10 USC, and No. 3 Hawai'i en route to the finals of the 17th Bracket.

UCLA Beach Volleyball freshman Alexa Fernandez and senior Reagan Hope reached the finals of the 17th bracket before officials decided not to play it out to completion. The duo had an impressive 5-1 record with a lot of hard-fought victories that went the distance. Fernandez and Hope, originally seeded 10th, won their pool with a 2-0 record. They opened with a three-set thriller over FIU's (55th seed) Aleksandra Chudzik and Arianna Franklin, 17-21, 21-15, 15-9 on Friday and closed the day with another three-setter, this time defeating Florida Atlantic's (23rd seed) Julie Honzovicova and Kate McLaughlin, rallying for a 14-21, 21-19, 21-19 win. They were reseeded 16th in the Champions Bracket and fell to the 17th-seeded duo from Stanford, Avery Jackson and Taylor Wilson, 21-14, 21-19. That relegated them to the 17th Bracket, where their grit and toughness was put on display again winning three more matches, all in three sets, to reach the finals of the 17th Bracket. Seeded first in the 17th Bracket, the Bruin duo opened with a 21-18, 32-34, 15-11 win on Saturday over GCU's (16th seed) Becca Drake and Jessica Drake. Then on Sunday, they took down the eighth seed from LSU, Gabi Bailey and Parker Bracken, 16-21, 21-14, 15-13, and the fourth-seeded pair from Florida State, Gella Andrew and Myriah Massey, 21-15, 15-21, 15-12. They were expected to take on the 15 seed, Texas A&M - Corpus Christi's Madison Morrow and Tess Spaansen. The Islanders' duo posted upsets of No. 2 Washington, No. 10 USC, and No. 3 Hawai'i en route to the finals of the 17th Bracket.

- UCLA Student-Athlete of the Week (Nov. 12-18, 2024)

UCLA Beach Volleyball freshman Sally Perez and junior Maggie Boyd took down the field of 64 to capture the Bruins' first-ever AVCA National Collegiate Beach Pairs Championship on Nov. 17, 2024. Boyd and Perez were seeded fifth in pool play and posted two wins on Friday, Nov. 15, defeating Maya McNabney and Madeline Sigmon of Costal Carolina (60th seed), 21-14, 21-15 in the first match and then taking down Kristin Bobay and Millie Olsson of Texas A&M - Corpus Christi (37th seed), 21-14, 21-17, to win the pool with a 2-0 record. The duo was then reseeded at No. 7 in the Champions Bracket and opened play on Saturday, Nov. 16 with a 21-18, 21-19 straight-set win over USC's Maya Gessner and Kaileigh Truslow (26th seed). The Bruin pair then defeated Maddison Parmelly and Karin Zolnercikova of Texas (10th seed) in their second match on Saturday, 21-17, 21-16. The third match of the day saw the Bruins win a quarterfinal bout against Long Beach State's second-seeded pair of Malia Gementera and Taylor Hagenah in their only three-setter of the tournament, 21-18, 17-21, 15-12. That set up a semifinal match on Sunday morning at 6:00 a.m. PT where the UCLA tandem took out 11th-seeded Cal Poly's Piper Ferch and Erin Inskeep in identical set scores of 21-16. Ferch and Inskeep defeated the three-seed from LMU to reach the semifinals. All the Bruins had to do in the title match was take down the 10th-ranked pair in the world, TCU's top-seeded tandem of Daniela Alvarez and Tania Moreno. The duo from Spain finished fifth at the 2024 Olympic Games and has a combined collegiate career record of 88-14. The Horned Frogs pair hadn't dropped a set in the tournament and Boyd and Perez used timely blocking and aggressive serving to post a straight-set victory in the finals, 21-16, 21-17. Playing in her first season for the Bruins, Perez registered three blocks in the finals and was huge at the net. Boyd finished the match with four huge aces and put a lot of service pressure on the Horned Frogs.

Only pair in NCAA named four-time All-American*

Megan and Nicole McNamara are the only pair in NCAA history to be named four-time All-Americans.

AVCA Top Flight Award

Introduced in 2018, this awards program was designed to recognize excellence in collegiate beach volleyball from all over the country and across all flights. In order for a pair to be eligible for the award, the two student-athletes must compete in at least 15 matches together and at a specific flight number. Should that pair win at least 75% of their matches – regardless of the overall result of the dual – those athletes will achieve "Top Flight" status.

GULF SHORES, Ala. – The top-seeded UCLA beach volleyball team made history Sunday, winning the first NCAA Championship in program history. UCLA defeated fourth-seeded Florida State, 3-1, avenging a Friday loss to the Seminoles that put the Bruins one loss away from elimination. They proceeded to win four matches in two days, capped by Sunday's triumph, which gave UCLA its 116th overall NCAA Championship.

The Bruins won 35 of its final 36 matches to complete their historic season with a 40-4 overall record. The 40 wins represent a single-season NCAA record, previously set by USC last year (38). The Seminoles dropped to 33-7. The win marked UCLA's first over Florida State in an NCAA Championship setting, with the Bruins having been eliminated by the Seminoles in 2016 and 2017.

Returning to the flight format used throughout the regular season, pairs 4 and 5 took to the sand first. In their first action since Saturday's semifinal, the Seminoles got off to a hot start, claiming each first set. The Bruins would not go quietly, however, as each tandem recovered to force a first-to-15 third set.

UCLA's No. 5 pair of Izzy Carey and Megan Muret posted a dramatic 24-22 second-set victory and rode its newfound momentum to a 17-21, 24-22, 15-8 win over Madison Fitzpatrick and Francesca Goncalves to get the Bruins on the board first.

The Florida State duo of Molly McBain-Brooke Kuhlman would soon make it a best-of-three affair, though, pulling the Seminoles even with a 21-15, 19-21, 15-12 defeat of Elise Zappia-Mac May in a battle of No. 4 pairs.

The top three courts came out determined in the second flight, sweeping the first sets to put the Bruins on the brink of history. UCLA's Court 3 team of Zana Muno and Savvy Simo grabbed their opportunity with a convincing win over Macy Jerger-Sara Putt, 21-19, 21-9, to inch the Bruins one step closer.

The 2018 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 116th NCAA title with a 3-1 victory over Florida State.

With both Courts 1 and 2 on match point, the duo of Sarah Sponcil-Lily Justine played the part of hero. The second-court pair knocked off Katie Horton-Hailey Luke of the Seminoles, 21-18, 21-19, setting off a storming of the court in celebration.

The pairs of Nicole McNamara-Megan McNamara (Court 1) and Izzy Carey-Megan Muret (Court 5) were selected to the All-Tournament Team.

GULF SHORES, Ala. – The second-seeded UCLA beach volleyball team won its second-consecutive NCAA title on Sunday afternoon (May 5), taking down top-seeded USC 3-0 at Gulf Shores Public Beach.

UCLA, which finished 35-3 on the season, opened the dual in style, winning in straight sets on courts four and five.

Juniors Madi Yeomans and Savvy Simo took down Joy Dennis and Maja Kaiser, 21-16, 21-19, on court four, while senior Izzy Carey and freshman Lindsey Sparks mustered a 21-16, 21-15, triumph over Cammie Dorn and Mollie Ebertin on court five.

The championship-clinching victory came on court three, as senior Zana Muno and freshman Abby Van Winkle defeated USC's Haley Hallgren and Alexandra Poletto, 22-20, 21-13. The win for the Bruin pair snapped a three-game losing streak to the Trojans as a team and for the pair on court three.

The Bruins were on pace for a 5-0 victory over the Trojans without dropping a set before the matches on courts one and two were truncated.

On court one, seniors Megan and Nicole McNamara took the first set off of USC's Tina Graudina and Abril Bustamante, 21-18, and were tied at 19-19 in the second set when the match was ended.

Likewise on court two, the Bruin pair of senior Sarah Sponcil and junior Lily Justine took the first set off of Sammy Slater and Terese Cannon, 21-18, and had a sizeable 19-10 lead in the second set before the match was ended.

The Bruins have now posted the best record in the country for two consecutive seasons, going 35-3 in 2019 and 40-4 in 2018. The 40 wins are a UCLA and NCAA single-season record. UCLA has a combined 75-7 record in duals over the last two seasons which is a winning percentage of 91.5 percent. Of the 75 wins, 65, or 87 percent, have come against ranked teams, with 40, or 53 percent, coming against teams in the Top 10, and 24, or 32 percent, having been against teams in the Top five. These numbers reflect that UCLA not only has more victories than any other team in the country over the last two years, but it has more wins over ranked teams, top 10 teams and top five teams.

The Bruins beat the Trojans six straight times across the 2018 and 2019 seasons, going 8-4 against USC in that span.

The 2019 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 117th NCAA title with a 3-0 victory over top-seeded USC.

UCLA has gone 9-1 at the NCAA Championship with back-to-back titles in the last two seasons and of UCLA's 35 wins in 2019, 23 were sweeps, including three in the NCAA Championship, and of the 23 sweeps, 17 were against nationally ranked teams with 12 ranked in the Top 10.

UCLA went 35-3 (92.1%) as a team in 2019 and across all five flights, the Bruins were 155-23 (87.2%). Additionally, of the 155 court victories, 131 were in straight sets (84.5%). But even when UCLA was forced to a third set, the Bruins were a combined 24-12 (66.7%).

Both of the Bruins' pairs on courts three and five, Muno and Van Winkle and Carey and Sparks were named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team.

The five Bruin seniors on the 2019 NCAA Championship team join UCLA Head Coach Stein Metzger to accept the trophy.

MAPES BEACH

Mapes Beach, which is located at Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, serves as the home of the UCLA women's beach volleyball team.

The beach volleyball courts have undergone a complete renovation that was completed in time for the 2020 season, thanks to a donation totaling $1,000,000 from former UCLA tennis student-athlete John Mapes (BA 1990) and his wife Carrie (BA 1990, M.Ed. 1991). The donation to the beach volleyball program was used to endow a student-athlete scholarship, as well as to support the construction of new beach volleyball courts at Sunset Canyon Recreation Center.

After renovation, Mapes Beach now consists of four courts, of which three are regulation size with the fourth being used for warm-up purposes only.

The courts are open to UCLA staff and students, Monday-Sunday, 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. They are located at 111 Easton Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1370.

An ideal setting for beach volleyball, Sunset Canyon is located off the northwest side of DeNeve Drive, just east of the residence halls. Sunset Canyon Recreation Center is a park-like facility that features a 50-meter pool with diving facilities, a 25-yard family pool, picnic and barbecue areas, four beach volleyball courts and large grass areas for sunning, frisbee and other outdoor activities. In addition, there are six lighted regulation tennis courts. Also available are an outdoor amphitheater, various meeting rooms and lounges, adjacent parking and access for people with disabilities.

Professional cameras and cameras with telephoto or detachable lenses longer than 3-1/2 inches are prohibited in UCLA Athletic venues. Only those credentialed by the UCLA Athletic Communications Office will have the right to use such equipment. Flash photography, video cameras, monopods and tripods are also prohibited. UCLA event management reserves the right to ask guests to put cameras or video equipment away. All photo/video requests must go through the Athletic Communication office in advance.

Parking

Parking: Teams and officials parking is located at Recreation Center Structure (RC Structure). Spectator parking is located at the Sunset Village (SV) Parking Structure or lot #11 located off Bellagio Dr. Parking can be purchased at an hourly rate or a flat rate of $14 per day. Guests are encouraged to download the ParkMobile App. and pay for parking in advance-guests can select the athletics zone "2525" or a specific lot/structure. More information can be found at: https://www.transportation.ucla.edu/campus-parking/visitors.
